4 content cluster(s) below Kesten-Stigum threshold

Google can't tell what topic some groups of your pages are about. When pages on the same topic don't link to each other clearly, they end up competing against each other instead of helping each other rank higher. Group related pages together with stronger internal links and create one 'hub' or 'pillar' page for each topic that links to all the related pages.

● MEDIUM PRIORITY — FIX AFTER THE ABOVE

25 pages have thin content (<200 words)

25 of your pages are too short to rank well. Google prefers pages with enough content to genuinely help readers — very short pages are often skipped in search results. Expand each page to at least 400 words of useful content, or merge it with a related page.
